We are required under the Anti-Money Laundering and Counter-Terrorism Financing Act 2006 (the AML/CTF Act) to verify a member's identity for certain transactions.

This fact sheet explains how the identification (ID) rules work and what you have to do to get copies of your ID documents legally certified.

The AML/CTF Act requires members to provide a form of identification when they:

- request a transfer, rollover or a benefit payment
- apply to set up a smartMonday PENSION.

The ID requirements can be satisfied by Primary ID or, if Primary ID is not available, by Secondary ID.

Primary ID

A certified copy of:

- a photo ID, such as a State or Territory driver's licence or the details page of an Australian passport
- an international travel document as long as it contains a photograph and signature of the person in whose name it has been issued
- a card issued under State or Territory law for the purpose of proving a person's age, which contains a photograph of the person in whose name the document is issued
- a national identity card which contains a photograph and a signature of the person in whose name the document is issued.

Secondary ID

A certified copy of one document from List A plus a certified copy of one document from List B.

List A

- Birth certificate or birth extract issued by a State or Territory
- Citizenship certificate issued by the Commonwealth of Australia
- Pension card issued by Centrelink that entitles a person to financial benefits.

List B

- Letter from Centrelink regarding a Government assistance payment
- Notice issued by the Commonwealth, State or Territory within the past twelve months that contains a member's name and residential address, such as:
 - Australian Taxation Office notice of assessment
 - Rates notice from local council.

Process of certification

The witness must sight both the original and the photocopy to ensure they are identical.

The witness then formally certifies each page of the photocopy with the following:

- the words "I certify this to be a true copy of the original"
- their signature
- their printed name
- their qualification as a witness (eg Justice of the Peace)
- their registration number if applicable (eg JP# 123456)
- the date.

Here is an example of formal certification:
