Fees and costs

Prepared: 1 June 2021

The information in this guide forms part of the Product Disclosure Statement (PDS) dated 1 June 2021 for smartMonday PRIME TEF.

Did you know?

Small differences in both investment performance and fees and costs can have a substantial impact on your long-term returns. For example, total annual fees and costs of 2% of your account balance rather than 1% could reduce your final return by up to 20% over a 30 year period (for example, reduce it from $100,000 to $80,000).

You should consider whether features such as superior investment performance or the provision of better member services justify higher fees and costs.

You or your employer, as applicable, may be able to negotiate to pay lower fees. Ask the fund or your financial adviser.

To find out more

If you would like to find out more, or see the impact of the fees based on your own circumstances, the Australian Securities and Investments Commission (ASIC) website moneysmart.gov.au has a superannuation fee calculator to help you check out different fee options.

This document shows the fees and other costs that you may be charged. These fees and other costs may be deducted from your money, from the returns on your investment or from the assets of the superannuation entity as a whole.

Other fees, such as activity fees, advice fees for personal advice, and insurance fees may also be charged, but these will depend on the nature of the activity, advice, or insurance chosen by you.

Taxes, insurance fees and other costs relating to insurance are set out in other guides that form part of the PDS.

You should read all the information about fees and other costs because it is important to understand their impact on your investment. Investment fees and indirect costs vary depending on the investment option(s) you are invested in. The fees and costs for Aon MySuper and each investment option offered by the fund are set out on page 3.

See page 10 for the definition of each type of fee and cost according to the superannuation legislation. Not all the fees listed will apply to this product.

Changes and updates to fees and costs

Fees may vary slightly from year to year, mainly due to fluctuating levels of indirect costs in each option.

We'll update you on changes to fees either on our website at smartMonday.com.au or we will write to you, depending on the nature of the change. For example, if we increase any fee (other than for indexation or fluctuations in indirect costs) we'll notify you at least 30 days before the change.

After every 30 June, we will provide detailed information of indirect costs for the previous financial year on our website at smartMonday.com.au as soon as they become available.

Worked examples of fees and costs

This section shows some worked examples of the annual fees and costs on an account balance of $50,000, assuming the balance of your account stays the same for the whole year. The PDS contains an example of an account invested 100% in the default investment option, Aon MySuper. This section illustrates fees and costs for an account invested in a different investment option, or multiple investment options.

Note: Additional fees may apply. These examples don't take into account activity fees, advice fees for personal advice, or insurance fees.

Example for an account invested in Balanced Growth - Index

The table below gives an example of how the fees and costs in the Balanced Growth – Index option can affect your super investment over a one-year period. You should use this table to compare this product with other super products. This example assumes you are only invested in one investment option.

EXAMPLE — Balanced Growth – Index		BALANCE OF $50,000
Investment fee	0.39%	For every $50,000 you have in Balanced Growth – Index you will be charged $195 each year.
PLUS Administration fees	0.44%* + $72	And , you will be charged up to $220 each year in asset administration fees based on a percentage of your balance, plus $72 in member fees each year regardless of your balance.
PLUS Indirect costs	0.03%	And , indirect costs of $15 (estimated) each year will be deducted from your investment.
EQUALS Cost of product		If your balance was $50,000, then for that year you will be charged fees of up to $502 [~] for Balanced Growth – Index.

* You may be eligible for a reduction in the asset administration fee. If applicable, this will be shown in your Welcome pack and online personal homepage.

[~] Additional fees may apply (e.g. insurance fees, activity fees). A buy/sell spread does not apply.

Example for an account invested in multiple investment options

The table below gives an example of an account invested in 3 different investment options, with an overall account balance of $50,000.

- > Moderate – Index (assuming $20,000 invested)
- > Property – Diversified (assuming $20,000 invested)
- > International Shares – Index (assuming $10,000 invested)

EXAMPLE – Multiple options		BALANCE OF $50,000

[~] Additional fees may apply (e.g. insurance fees, activity fees). A buy/sell spread does not apply.

Administration fees

These are the fees we charge for administering your super account. There's a percentage-based fee and a dollar-based fee.

Your employer may make additional contributions to your account to cover the cost of some or all administration fees. See page 8 for more information about employer-paid fees.

Asset administration fee 0.44% pa

This is a percentage-based fee that is deducted monthly from your account.

You may be eligible for a reduction in this fee (see page 8). If applicable, see your Welcome pack or online personal homepage for details.

Member fee: $72 pa ($6 per month)

This is a dollar-based fee that is deducted monthly from your account. It is indexed annually each 1 July in line with inflation as measured by the change in the Average Weekly Ordinary Time Earnings (AWOTE) index.

Portfolio rebate

When your total account balance is over $250,000, you will receive a rebate on the asset administration fee. The rebate, which is calculated using your account balance at the end of each month, is credited back to your account monthly in the form of additional units in your chosen investment options.

Total account balance	Rebate (% pa)
First $250,000	Nil
Excess over $250,000	0.10

Example: Let's say you have an account balance of $800,000 at the end of the month. The rebate for that month would be calculated as:

Total account balance	Rebate applied	Rebate credited to your account
First $250,000	$250,000 x nil	Nil
Next $550,000	$550,000 x (0.10%/12)	$45.83

Investment fees

Investment fee

This is the fee we charge to cover the investment costs relating to each investment option you are invested in. It includes fees of the fund managers managing the investments, fees and costs charged by the custodian we employ to hold the investments, and any other investment-related cost recoveries paid out of the fund. Different investment fees apply depending on the type of investment option you choose.

This fee is not deducted directly from your account. It is included in the unit price of each investment option and reduces your investment return.

Indirect costs

Indirect cost ratio

An indirect cost is any other cost that reduces your investment return and is not deducted directly from your account or paid out of the fund.

The indirect costs in each investment option are measured by the indirect cost ratio (ICR), which is included in the unit price of each option (along with the investment fee described in the previous section). Indirect costs vary depending on the investment option you choose and usually include transactional and operational costs.

Our range of investment options get their exposure to shares, bonds, listed property and other asset classes by investing in wholesale managed funds. In turn, those funds buy and sell securities and may invest in specialist funds to gain access to certain markets or expertise. Along the way, transactional and operational costs are incurred outside the fund which are reflected in your investment return. These costs are not an additional charge to you.

Indirect costs vary depending on the investment option you choose and usually include:

- › transactional and operational costs, and
- › if applicable, performance-related fees (see page 6)

Indirect costs shown in the PDS and this guide are estimates based on information provided by the underlying fund managers. These costs may vary from year to year. We will provide updated information about indirect costs from time to time on our website at smartMonday.com.au.

Transactional and operational costs

Transactional and operational costs are costs associated with the buying and selling of underlying investments and are defined (under relevant regulations) to include buy-sell spreads, brokerage, settlement costs (including related custody costs), clearing costs and stamp duty on investment transactions (depending on the nature of the underlying investments or assets) but do not include (in the case of superannuation funds) certain costs associated with over-the-counter derivative financial products and borrowing costs. There are no transactional and operational costs paid out of the fund's assets, any such costs are incurred outside the fund.

These costs can be incurred directly by underlying fund managers or as a result of a manager investing through a fund into another fund. This is referred to as gaining exposure to underlying assets through an 'interposed vehicle'.

Examples of costs that are incurred by our underlying fund managers or through interposed vehicles in relation to the buying and selling of assets include brokerage and settlement costs on share trading and buy-sell spreads of or incurred by unitised managed funds.

Transactional and operational costs (excluding costs associated with over-the-counter derivatives, borrowing costs and any other investment-related costs that would otherwise form part of the investment fees of each of the investment options) vary depending upon the different asset classes and fund managers within each investment option.

Buy-sell spreads

While costs related to buy-sell spreads may be incurred indirectly via the transactional and operational costs described in this section, the trustee of the fund does not charge buy-sell spreads on the investment options. The trustee reserves the right to charge spreads at any time by providing you with 30 days advance notice.

Performance-related fees

Some of our investment options may employ fund managers that charge an additional fee if their investment returns exceed certain prescribed performance targets. These fees are usually included in the indirect costs measure for each investment option (i.e. ICR).

These fees can vary from year to year from zero up to a maximum that may be charged by the fund manager/s of that option. We have aggregated these potential fees to show you a maximum charge if all performance fee targets are achieved by the manager/s.

Insurance fees

The cost of your insurance includes the insurance premium and an insurance administration fee. You will see this as a monthly deduction from your account.

Insurance premiums

Your insurance premium is usually dependent on a number of factors including the type of cover you have, your age, the amount of cover, your occupation factor, and if you have any additional loadings.

Insurance administration fee

The cost of your insurance includes a fee of up to 10% (plus Goods and Services Tax (GST) and net of Reduced Input Tax Credits (RITC)) of the insurance premium which is payable directly to Aon for administering the insurance arrangements applicable to your account.

See the Insurance reference guide relevant to your participation in the fund, available at smartMonday.com.au for more information about the costs of insurance.

Advice fees

smartCoaches

As a member, you have access to smartCoaches who can provide you with intra-fund advice about your investment mix, contributions, retirement adequacy, and insurance within the fund. Any intra-fund advice is provided by or on behalf of Aon.

The cost of this advice is included in the asset administration fees.

Call us to find out more about accessing the service.

Personal financial advice

If you need more comprehensive or personal financial advice you may wish to engage the services of a financial adviser.

You can authorise the trustee to pay your financial adviser for personal advice about superannuation via a deduction from your account. You can negotiate the amount of the fee with the adviser and they will provide you with a document (such as a Statement of Advice) detailing the services provided and the fee charged for those services.

The different ways to deduct an advice fee are shown under Activity fees on page 9.

Switching fee

We do not charge a switching fee.

Fee reductions available on employer plans

Larger employer plans in smartMonday PRIME TEF may be eligible for reduced asset administration fees depending on the size of their superannuation plan (as measured by funds under management with us).

Any discount on the asset administration fee will cease if you leave your employer (where we will transfer your membership to the retained category of the fund). The asset administration fee will revert to the standard rate of 0.44% pa.

The asset administration fee applicable to your account will be shown in your Welcome Pack and online personal homepage.

Employer-paid fees and costs

Your employer may make extra contributions to your account to cover some or all of the administration fees and/or insurance costs deducted from your account while you remain employed by that employer and the employer agrees to do so. If they choose to do so, you'll see this as an additional contribution to your account. Any additional contributions by your employer will count towards your annual concessional contributions cap (limit). See the reference guide Tax, super and privacy available at smartMonday.com.au.

These arrangements are subject to change, as determined by your employer. For more info about employer benefits, speak to your employer.

Tax

For information about the tax applicable to superannuation, see the reference guide Tax, super and privacy available on our website at smartMonday.com.au.

Tax deductions

Administration fees and insurance fees are tax deductible to the fund. Any tax rebate attributable for any fees you have directly incurred is calculated at 15% and passed on to you via an offset to any contributions tax you have paid.

Goods and services tax (GST)

All fees shown in this PDS and charged to you are inclusive of GST, shown net of reduced input tax credits (RITCs).

Changes to fees and costs

We have the right to change the fees and costs described in this guide without your consent. We will notify you of any changes at smartMonday.com.au or in writing, depending on the nature of the change, as outlined above. Any annual indexation of the member fee will not be notified to you.

When you cease employment with your employer, any reduced asset administration fee will cease, and the cost of your insurance cover may change.

We may charge additional costs arising from Government charges and legislation changes (see below).

Government charges and legislation changes

From time to time, the Government makes changes to superannuation rules and infrastructure which result in implementation costs for the fund. The Government may also apply additional levies on super funds. We may deduct an appropriate amount from your account to recover some or all of these costs, but we'll notify you at least 30 days before we make any deduction.

Interest earned on application monies in trust accounts

The applications trust account is interest-bearing. The trustee retains any interest earned on application monies received into the trust account but have not yet been allocated to your superannuation benefit in smartMonday. The interest earned is used to partially fund the operational risk reserve.

Activity fees
