*The June 2020 returns for these investment options have had a correction in July 2020 results due to an underlying unit pricing error. The unit prices for these options were corrected in July and any member transactions on the incorrect unit prices will be rectified in due course.

Transition to Retirement Pension accounts (TRP) - Since 1 July 2017, investment earnings on assets held within TRP accounts are no longer tax-exempt and are subject to the concessional superannuation tax rate of up to 15%. As such, since this date, TRP accounts now use the same unit prices as a superannuation account would use. The table above shows the historical returns for "taxed" investment options. Bearing in mind that TRP accounts which commenced prior to 1 July 2017 were untaxed up until the change, this means that the performance returns shown here are only an indication and may be slightly understated compared to what your TRP account may have earned since commencement. For historical returns of "tax-exempt" investment options, see the smartMonday PENSION investment performance report

The performance returns shown above are calculated net of investment fees and an allowance for tax on investment income. The returns are based on unit prices of each investment option calculated as at the end of the month. Unit prices are based on the latest available investment valuations at the time of calculation, which means they could be 1 or 2 days behind the current market indices.
